

TOTAL ECLIPSE

CHASERS OF THE LOST SLEEP

FACT SHEET

TOTAL ECLIPSE: CHASERS OF THE LOST SLEEP

Synopsis

Kentucky, a sleepless hen and star of social networks, finds out that animals fall asleep during total eclipses. With the help of her sidekick J.O.S., her robot personal assistant, she travels through space-time in search of the perfect eclipse, in the hope of finding sleep at last. On her journey, she discovers all that needs to happen before you can observe this unique phenomenon.

Highlights

- A guided immersive experience
- An outing for the whole family that will spark discussions on eclipses and prepare for the total solar eclipse on April 8, 2024 in Montréal (a first since 1932!)
- A Planétarium production filmed in the Biosphère's multimedia studio
- Kentucky, a puppet created by Jako Lanterne Studio, will be present in the Planétarium lobby

Audience: 8 to 12 years, family

Duration: 27 minutes

Experience: 360° immersive dome show

Producer: Planétarium

Executive Producer: Noé Sardet, Parafilms

A film by: Collectif Les Macronautes in cooperation with Après Minuit

Director, writer and art director: François Guinaudeau et Sébastien Samyn

Kentucky the puppet: Lucile Prosper

Dancer and interpreter of J.O.S.: Benjamin Herrero

Original music : Fabienne Lucet

Song and original voice : Bénédicte Bérubé